BORIS THE SPIDER

A Journal of Duplicitous Doings, Raw Power, and Naked Greed

"Oh, what a tangled web we weave
When first we practice to deceive."

---Sir Walter Scott---

9 Apr 95

HAPPY PASSOVER/EASTER

And to those pagans out there, festive vernal equinoctial festivities.

On my recent foray into suburban Dayton, I picked up GUERRILLA ($15.95 at the BX), COLONIAL DIPLOMACY and the IRONCLADS EXPANSION SET ($55 and $86 less 10% at Book World on Dayton-Yellow Springs Road). IRONCLADS only cost me $9 back in 1979 or '80. I've never played it. Am I getting stupid, or what? The other game store I found in the area was "The Tin Soldier". List price on games, but a better selection. They even had three copies of "Once upon a Time".

The general consensus of our 1829 applicants was that they'd rather play 1830 or 1835 if they'd have their druthers. They have.

Those of you using E-mail should take note that the "ULI" part of my Eglin e-mail address will no longer work.

Betting booths are open for one Game Turn in CIRCUS MAXIMUS. Newcomers may bet up to 10,000 sesterces (s) in 100 a multiples. Odds are posted on p 16.

BORIS'S BULLETIN BOARD

Thought for the Month: Destruction of the enemy's military forces is in reality the object of all combats.

---Carl von Clausewitz

Mark Frueh Reports: "Vengeance is Mine" Gamestart: So far only one confirmed ticketed passenger...John Butitta and the engine owner - Paul Bolduc...I do want to get the engine moving with a minimum of 4 players (but we have room for 4 more passengers). Perhaps a full compliment next month.

Charles Bahl's Declination, a 'sine dedicated to HISTORY OF THE WORLD, is closing up shop with the next issue. All HOTW enthusiasts will want to get a copy of Vol 1, #3 for the "Persistence of Culture" variant provided therein.

Brad Wilson, DIPdom's G.K. Chesterton look alike, will again be sponsoring ShoreCon, a week of gaming, comradeship, gaming, drinking, gaming, sunburning, gaming, and very little sleep, 31 May-7 Jun a block away from the ocean 1748 Avalon Ave, Avalon, NJ. Drop in for "a week, a day, a weekend, or whatever time one can spare." Cost? Well, chip in for food and drink, shared beach passes, and incidentals. Contact Brad at his Paoli address. Who knows, perhaps the legendary Flapjack McHugh will resurface.

It's Runestone Poll time again. You'll find a copy of the ballot between pp 10 and 11. Fill it out if you're so inclined. Use it to line your birdcage otherwise.

BOOS & KUDOS

This month's Madame Bolduc Press Excellence Award goes to Ron Fisher for his "Radio Moscow" piece in "Boris VIII".

There will be a Ma Nar Super-Sudsy Bomb this month. It may still be Lent, but it won't be when you get this. It goes to Mike Klausutis for delay of 'sine with his MERCNANT OF VENUS unorders.

PEACE FAILS!

England Strengthens!

Fall 1912

WALL STREET JOURNAL--The second Peace Plan was short lived, and in truth probably had less a chance of passing than did the first. The Russian position is noticeably collapsing, but whatever progress Austria makes in the East, England deprives him of in the West. It is still Austria's game to win, but neither the Duke or the Tsar intend to let it be easy.

MURKWOOD: Several investing houses let out audible sighs of relief when word arrived that Colonel-for-Life Frush had reestablished the Duchy of Warsaw. That would be two more sessions to unload (presumably) soon-to-be-worthless francs. Meanwhile, Austria is hanging in there with all the ferocity of a moonshiner guarding his still from the Taxman. Turkey needs to reexamine her alliance status. Meanwhile Italy has broken through to the broad Atlantic only to find itself outnumbered 3-2 by the Royal Navy. But where does the Kriegsmarine stand, Germany having annexed NWY, a British protectorate in the process of threatening STP, the Tsar's biggest threat to British security?

MOSCOW-VIENNA: Surrender to the Turkish and Russian forces. We will treat your troops and people fairly.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Austrian Reporter (Budapest)--Austrian tourist agencies are starting to cancel Russian reservations in response to the cancellation of many Austrian reservations in UKR and MOS. When asked by this news agency why the cancellation war, one Austrian said, "Never could trust a Russian with a ruble."

Pravda--Italian diplomats have falsely spread rumors of Russia/Turkish attacking Austria when in truth Austria attacked us and we defended.

CLIFFPHONE--With what dark, dastardly secret does Wormtongue hold the Italian government in thrall? Surely it is not a promise of 2nd place as History shows in "Boris IV" when Lord Devon's Italian government proffered too naked a back. The last anti-Austrian hope meekly slunk back to VEN. It will surely face two Austrian units come Spring. Can anything stop the Red Leviathan now that Italy has squandered the opportunity and returned to toadyish vassaldom? Certainly not the Turks whose last center is a ripe date to pluck. Not the Russians, who will need Wormtongue's support to survive English raids. Not the homeless French. Not the fleeing Germans, seduced by Italian promises of French spoils. Not the British who have German and Italian pirates poised to plunder her shores. Nor now Italy who may soon see her Mediterranean naval supremacy evaporate.

BERLIN to ITALY: Distrust is mounting daily about your worth as an ally and unless you make way for me to capture two French supply centers soon, well, you conjecture.

VIENNA: The Archduke expressed deep regret of the Italian invasion of Trieste but refused to take any action that could aggravate the situation. "We will take no aggressive action against a nation who has been such a long-time and faithful ally," he said. "We can only hope that the King will regain his noble faculties and seek peace once again. There can be no other choice--we will do no harm to our true friends."

In other news, the government announced a new program to bring peace and prosperity to Western Europe just as is now being enjoyed in the east (if the Archduke overlooks the barbarian lands in the southeast. Expansion of the Archduke's influence to promote peace into the former German territories is underway. "With our people bringing culture and the Italians bringing the wine and pasta we shall truly have a world where all persons of noble character (aka, Austrians and Italians) can relax in peace and gluttony," said Wormtongue.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

Berlin Herald--Lesson to be learned in life is beware of backstabber who first claims to be a victim of a backstabber.

Europe Girds for War! Clearwine BOURSE Rules Promulgated

Winter 1900

1995X

CLEARWINE: As tensions rise in the international arena, so would the tempo of trading in currencies of the Great Powers on the floor of the Clearwine Bourse but for that unfortunate hissy-fit by the Stormwalker's Cult that flooded the exchange. So far only two traders have registered with the Clearwine Money Changers Guild, but as the tensions in Europe heat up, others will surely try to make a fortune off of other people's misery. It's only human, although the dragonwets have been known to do it too.

RULES FOR CLEARWINE BOURSE

The game is open to all but those who are playing 'Boris IX'. [Close relatives thereof can play but must plot a move in advance to offset an 'insider information' advantage. Boris and Ms Nar may or may not play, but Boris cannot win. Ms Nar will do whatever she pleases...]

Each player starts with 1000 units of the currencies presently in the game (at start, Austrian crowns, English pounds, French francs, German marks, Italian lira, Russian rubles, and Turkish piasters). New players may start at any time. Each currency starts at $1/unit. For every even 100 units of currency that are bought or sold in a turn, the currency's value rises or drops by $.01. Fractions are carried over. [For every foreign center captured/lost that season, the price goes up/down $.05; loss/recapture of a home center sends the price down/up $.10.] Minimum price of a currency is $.01 unless the country is eliminated, then the price is $0. Players may not buy on margin, but may hold dollars. A player may never sell more than 500 units of a currency at a time. [Exception: If a standby player assumes an NMR position, his/her assets are immediately converted to dollars with no adjustment to the Bourse--think of it as he's been bought out and the new investors will hold.] The Clearwine Bourse is never closed. [Reported values will be rounded to the nearest dollar until space permits fractions. At game's end, whoever has the highest dollar value wins].

WARNING: Sections in brackets differ from the BOLDHOME rules.

EXAMPLE: Rubles start at $1.00. Total sales are 750 and total buys are 1210; the ruble will go up $.04 (1210-750 = 460 rounded down).

in Moscow. Foreign Minister Fisher is desperately packing his bags when the War Minister enters. "Master Fisher"

"What?" exclaimed Fisher, his hands shooting up in the air. "The check is in the mail! He was dead when I got there! I wasn't even in town that night..." Turning around, "Oh it's you! Don't do that!"

"Sir, our army has captured St Petersburg with the assistance of the Navy!"

"Oh, the tide is turning!" Fisher cried, clasping his hands together. "With StP and MOS we can..."

"Sorry Sir, but the Austrians are at Moscow's gates now and our defenders are falling fast."

"Good heavens, man. Pull yourself together and help me finish packing! Is my carriage ready? We've got to get going or I'll never make it to 'Boris XI'!"

And we leave our heroes desperately stuffing the Kremlin's treasured art and gold into burlap sacks. Tune in next time for another chapter of "As the Worm Turns".

1835 Sic Sprechen!

HANNA: As I did for 1835A, I ran some figures on the items in the initial packet for 1835B. Still nowhere near enough data to be really instructive, but it's all I know about:

Item	Price	Earned	Closed	Return	Item	Price	Earnings	Close	Return
N-F	100	312	350	662%	#1	80	367	131	623%
OB	120	382	350	610%	#2	170	653	262	538%
Pr	150	462	350	541%	#3	80	297	131	535%
L-D	190	504	340	444%	#4	160	378	262	400%
Bra	130	423	262	527%	#5	80	512	131	804%
Han	160	483	262	466%	#6	80	427	131	698%
BY	184	564	700	637%

Congratulations to Dan for winning. His careful management of the BY kept the stock value and dividends high.

FARROW: 1835B Autopsy

This analysis is based on Chuck Hanna's work on 1835A. I used the same assumptions, namely: each was bought at face value, and was held until the end of the game, which is not true of 1835B any more than it was for 1835A, but now we have two games to base purchasing decisions on!

RR	1835B	1835A	Average	RR	1835B	1835A	Average
NF	5.62	4.91	5.27	#1	5.56	6.28	5.92
OB	5.10	4.51	4.81	#2	4.71	4.39	4.55
PB	4.41	3.94	4.18	#3	4.81	5.21	5.01
LD	4.99	6.80	5.89	#4	3.22	4.39	3.80
Braun	5.17	5.25	5.21	#5	7.31	6.28	6.80
Hann	4.00	4.58	4.29	#6	6.31	6.34	6.33
BY	5.87	4.79	5.33

The discrepancy in performance from one game to the next can be attributed to such things as track construction and whether or not the director had another railroad (Major or Minor) with which to "play games" with locomotives.

Now on to our game. I firmly believe that the way to win in any of the 18xx games, and more so in 1835, is to buy-and-hold. Selling a RR should only be done to dump a floundering RR on some unsuspecting soul, or to avoid having it dumped on you, or to "trade up" to a better paying/higher priced RR. The percentage price increase is higher the higher the price of the stock goes. I know the temptation is to sell a high priced one to buy 2 of a lower priced one, but the dividends had better out-weigh the loss in stock value increase.

Of course, good railroadmanship is also required. I took the BY to the top (almost) by paying dividends whenever possible. The BY failed to pay only once, the SX and BA failed to pay twice during our game. And I didn't have a second RR to shuffle locos and money with.

The first big mistakes were in SR6. Chinnery sold 3 shares of the BY to start the BA, and Hanna sold a BY to buy a 2 share of BA. By selling, they missed 2 chances to increase their net worth, the BY dividend in the ensuing operating round and the corresponding BY price increase.

The next mistake happened in SR7, with Zieske selling BY to buy 2 shares of the PR. Which was 6 operating rounds before the PR started operating! (Isn't hindsight wonderful?) Just think of all that money tied up in unproductive stock! Stock that couldn't be sold, wasn't paying dividends, and was not increasing in value. Zieske finished dead last. :(

I won't go into details on other transactions, but just let me say that I was a little envious of Tsuk. He managed to finagle his 9 certificate limit into 12.5 shares! And he might have been able to increase that to 14 by selling his 5 share of PR to nationalize a 2 share certificate of OLI!

It was fun. Let's do it again sometime.

FRUEH: I enjoyed the game and liked the German Game reports...although it is a little tricky when you don't know German. It was a very nice flavor to the game. I learned a few lessons while playing the game.

CHINNERY: Congratulations to Dan for well earned victory. At least I didn't end up last. I felt there was too much German. We are supposed to be playing 1835 Railroading not learning German. Just a few words is fine to create an 1835 German flavor. But do not use the German script. I found it difficult to read. The script compounded with reduction made it impossible at times that I just guessed with a response.

TSUK: This was my first seven-player game of 1835, and I must admit I found it a little frustrating. Being forced into an investor role from the beginning, and then having all my investments taken away from me wasn't much fun. At least the Oldenburg got a token in Hamburg!

I think five players is pretty much the maximum I would be willing to play in most 18xx games.

BUTITTA: Congratulations to Dan for winning. His careful management of the BY kept the stock value and dividends high.

GM: Hmm. Dan's figures seem to be a profit/price index rather than Chuck's % return. I too found the German a pain, so we'll use it mostly for section headings. Yes, Paul's early buy of PR shares was a major blunder, but had he controlled #2 it need not have been. I also thought that the nationalization frenzy was counterproductive (except for Mikel) but expanding your certificate limit by doing so probably makes it worth it. Just do it early I guess. All in all, nicely played.

DEADLINE FOR ALL GAMES IS 1200 NOON CENTRAL TIME 6 MAY 95

The Bottom Line

This is BORIS THE SPIDER, a 'zine dedicated to the play of multiplayer games. BORIS is published the first or second Sunday of the month by Paul & Meg Bolduc, 203 Devon Ct, Ft Walton Beach, FL 32547-3110 and currently has a subscription price of $10.50 for 12 issues in hardcopy or $1 by E-mail via GENIE or INET. A hardcopy sub will also include an E-mail sub. Make checks payable to "Paul R. Bolduc". BORIS can be reached at (904) 863-9081, GENIE P.BOLDUC1, INET BOLDUC@EGLIN.AF.MIL or P.BOLDUC1@GENIE.GEIS.COM. If phoning, expect to be greeted by an answering machine. If we're here, not engaged in an epic computer battle or enthralled in old-time TV, and recognize your voice, you may get to talk to a real human, so don't hang up upon hearing the Mighty Ms Nar's recorded message.

FIRST CLASS MAIL

March 8, 1995

Dear Publisher/GM,

It's Runestone Poll time! The 1995 ballot is printed on the back of this letter. The Poll started rating Diplomacy-related zines in 1977 and has since expanded to cover GMs and subzines. We'd like you to help by distributing copies of the ballot to your players and readers—we won't be contacting them all directly.

Anyone may obtain a ballot by writing to us at the address below. Please let your readers know this if you don't want to distribute ballots yourself. You can even vote without using a ballot—just include your name and signature, indicate one way in which you participate in the North American Diplomacy hobby (sub to zine XXX, play in game YYY, etc.), and list the zines, subzines, and GMs you wish to vote for. Rate each from 0 (the worst) to 10 (the best)—no fractions, please. Do not rate yourself or your publication.

You may only vote for GMs under whom you've played a postal or e-mail game since July 1, 1994, and whose competence you can rate fairly. Any game qualifies, not just Diplomacy or its variants. To vote for a zine you don't have to subscribe, but you must be able to rate it fairly. This means you've seen (or should have seen if not for delays) at least two issues since July 1, 1994. You may not vote for us or our publications.

Don't take the Poll too seriously. This is a hobby, and our goal is to have fun. But do vote carefully, not out of spite, or for zines you haven't seen. On the other hand, even if you've seen only one zine, you're welcome to rate it as long as you've seen enough of it to rate it fairly. We want input from everyone, not just a select few.

The Poll publication includes a list of voters. If you vote, but you don't want to be listed as a voter, please tell us by marking the spot indicated on the ballot.

We will tally the results on June 30; any ballots received after that will not count. To order the results, check where indicated on the ballot and send the corresponding fee. If you want only the pages of the Poll publication that deal with you, your zine, or your subzine, send us a SASE and let us know what you want.

Some of you may not want to take part in the Poll. If so, we respect your decision and we apologize for sending you a ballot. We thought it would be better to send a ballot and let you decide rather than run the risk of omitting someone who wanted to take part.

If you have any questions, please let us know! Thanks in advance for all your help—we couldn't do it without you.

Sincerely,

Eric and Claire Brosius

The 1995 Runestone Poll

ZINE POLL

You may rate any amateur postal or e-mail zine that you've read enough of to rate fairly. This means you've seen (or would have seen if not for delays) at least two issues since July 1, 1994. Only North American zines are eligible, but anyone may vote. Rate each zine from 0 (the worst) to 10 (the best)—no fractions, please. Do not rate your own zine. Blanks are for zines I forgot to list. Do not vote for me or my publications.

GM POLL

You may rate any GM under whom you played any postal or e-mail game since July 1, 1994 for long enough to judge him or her fairly. Only North American GMs are eligible, but anyone may vote. List GMs alphabetically by name (not zine). Rate each GM from 0 (the worst) to 10 (the best)—no fractions, please. GMs may not rate themselves. Do not vote for me.

For the main lists (zines, subzines, and GMs) send 64 cents, two 32 cent U.S. stamps, or an issue of your zine in which you publish a ballot. For the Poll publication, send $5.00 or more and check here ☐. Last year's publication was 74 pages long. It contained main lists, articles, statistical analysis, and lots more! Thanks for your donations; they really help.

SUBZINE POLL

A subzine is a regular section of a zine which is (a) edited by someone other than the zine editor(s), or (b) edited by the zine editor(s), but devoted to a specific hobby service. Any subzine of a North American zine is eligible. The other instructions are the same as those for the Zine Poll.

RUNESTONE POLL CONTEST

Guess the Zine Poll winner—the prize is a travel Diplomacy board with magnetic pieces. To be eligible you must vote in the Poll and correctly guess the winning zine; I will pick the contest winner at random from the set of eligible entrants. The names of the winner and any other eligible entrants will be published in the Poll publication.

To enter,
